

Report on visit to STEP, JSSATE, Bengaluru

The students of V semester, Electronics and Instrumentation Engineering visited incubation center of STEP, JSSATE, Bengaluru on 28 January 2023.

These students study technological innovation management and entrepreneurship as a one of the core subject of their curriculum. They study about building business from the seed stage. To help aspirants of entrepreneurship this visit was arranged.

The students participated in the one hour lecture on Entrepreneurship, incubation support to startups, start-up ideas and innovation. Dr. Deepthi, CEO, STEP center, Bengaluru and Mrs. Renukamba from the incubation center involved in guiding students about activities of the business incubation centers. They also assured students on any required help in their future plans for building business and incubation facility at the center.

Few students were shown interest to continue communication to get help which they need for their future business plans.

Participants:

V SEM Electronics and Instrumentation Engineering students, JSSATE, Bengaluru

Total number of participants: 30

Faculty in charge: Dr. Nagesha, Asst. professor, E & I E Department.

